The Department of Labor Kicks off Labor Awareness Month

The Department of Labor is pleased to announce various activities to commemorate Labor Awareness Month throughout the territory. These activities are designed to honor and pay tribute to the hard-working men and women of this territory who have contributed to the social, economic and cultural development of the Virgin Islands and to highlight the myriad of programs and services DOL provides to the general public.

The following is the schedule of events on St. Thomas and St. Croix. The various activities will help spread an awareness of labor throughout the territory as well as bring everyone in the community together in worship and celebration. The Honorable Charles W. Turnbull, Governor and Cecil R. Benjamin, Commissioner of Labor, encourages everyone to participate in as many of these activities as they possibly can.
